CENTRAL HIGH HOSTING VISUAL ARTS WORKSHOPS

October 31, 2019

(MACON, GA) – Central High School, a fine arts and International Baccalaureate magnet school, is hosting a Visual Arts Workshop Series over the next several months. These workshops were funded through the efforts of The Griffith Family Foundation, one of the school's community partners.

These workshops will focus on several areas with outside instructors coming in to teach the courses for Central High students. The first course was on printmaking techniques, taught by Georgia College employee Matt Forrest, and took place on Oct. 30. The remaining schedule is as follows:

- Screen Printing T-Shirts with Design Contest, Matt Forrest, Nov. 19 from 10:30 a.m.- 1 p.m.
- Painting + Ice Cream Social, Tiara Groce, Dec. 4, 3:30-5:30 p.m.
- Ceramic Cups with Screen Print Designs, Yen Ting Chiu, Jan. 15 and Feb. 5, 3:30-5:30 p.m.
- Textured Ceramic Trays with Decals and Inspirational Quotes, Sabrina Barilone, Feb. 26 and March 25, 3:30-5:30 p.m.
