DISTRICT'S EXECUTIVE OFFICER INSTALLED AS GAEL PRESIDENT

July 29, 2019

(MACON, GA) – Dr. Jesse Davis, the District's Executive Officer of Secondary Education, was recently installed as the president of the Georgia Association of Educational Leaders (GAEL). GAEL is a leadership development organization that serves all of Georgia's public schools.

Davis is starting his first year in Bibb County after serving as a school-level administrator for 16 years. He spent 12 years as principal of Feagin Mill Middle School, which became a Lighthouse School to Watch under his leadership in 2016. He was previously chosen as Georgia's National Distinguished Principal in 2013.
