

NORTHEAST HIGH SCHOOL ALUMNUS BRIGADIER GENERAL KELVIN D. MCELROY JOINS 2024 ROSTER FOR CTAE MASTERCLASS SERIES

Macon, GA - Brigadier General Kelvin D. McElroy is the Commander, Force Generation Center, Air Force Reserve Command, Robins Air Force Base, Georgia and the next distinguished alumnus to serve as guest lecturer for the W.S. Hutchings College and Career Academy On the Menu Masterclass Series slated for Thursday, February 8, 2024 from 10:00 - 11:00 AM.

General McElroy will return to his alma mater Northeast High School to speak to Bibb County School District JROTC students on the topic: Go. Inspire. Serve. Go Inspire is an initiative of the U.S. military to connect with communities in face-to-face conversations on the true meaning of service.

As Commander of the Force Generation Center, General McElroy leads the single organization responsible for generating Air Force Reserve forces by leveraging Reserve strategic capability to meet operational needs in support of global force management. The Force Generation Center performs all aspects of force generation to include oversight, visibility, and accountability of about 70,000 Air Force Reserve forces.

General McElroy was commissioned as a second lieutenant in the U.S. Army in June 1994 through the Army Reserve Officer Training Program at Fort Valley State University, Ga. While on active duty, he served as an air defense artillery officer before joining the Air Force Reserve in 2000. Since joining the Reserve, he has held numerous positions including chief of supply and fuels, Air Force JROTC instructor, deputy of war fighter logistics and maintenance squadron commander. General McElroy was promoted to Brigadier General on August 1, 2022.

In addition to being a Northeast High School alumnus, two of his three degrees were earned at Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs) - Fort Valley State University and Florida A&M. General McElroy's education, assignments, decorations, awards, and promotion are too vast to note; however, he excels in leadership, logistics and strategic command. He has received the coveted Legion of Merit with two oak Leaf Clusters Air and Space Meritorious Service Medal with four oak leaf clusters.

CONTACT:

Stephanie Hartley,
Chief Communications Officer
Bibb County School District

